

I am against telemarketers being able to call my home. First of all it ties up the phone line in case of an emergency incoming call. I do not like the idea of being interrupted all hours of the day for un-important calls. I feel it is an invasion of MY PRIVACY.